Issued: May 23, 2007

By the Commission:

On May 2, 2007, Roger Ball submitted a pleading asking the Commission to reconsider or clarify our March 28, 2007, Order designating his oral presentation as argument. By pleading submitted May 4, 2007, Questar Gas Company (Questar) asks that we dismiss Questar's application and to close this docket. In addition, Questar's May 4, 2007, filing response to Mr. Ball's request for reconsideration or clarification. No other responses have been made to Mr. Ball's request or to Questar's request.

Based upon our review of the two requests and in consideration of the existing record in this docket and our March 28, 2007, Order on Stipulation, we conclude that we will deny Mr. Ball's request and grant Questar's request. Mr. Ball's request is essentially a request to address matters which are no longer relevant or material in this case or to issue an advisory ruling. As such, we decline to grant his request. In light of our March 28, 2007, Order and Questar's current request to dismiss its original application filed in this docket, there are no further proceedings anticipated in this docket and we see no harm in granting Questar's request to close this docket.
